

Book Club Resources

Websites for Book Club ideas

- Based on the book: <http://www.mcpl.lib.mo.us/readers/movies/>
A site based on movie and book tie-ins
- Book browse: <http://www.bookbrowse.com/>
A general site for book clubs
- Book club to go: http://www.torontopubliclibrary.ca/rec_clu_booklist.jsp
The Toronto Public Library book club site (with some good tips)
- Book group buzz: <http://bookgroupbuzz.booklistonline.com/>
A book list blog
- Book lovers: fine books and literature: <http://www.xs4all.nl/~pwessell>
Selection of good links to books
- Book group corner: <http://www.randomhouse.com/resources/bookgroup/> Random House's book club page
- Canadian book clubs: <http://www.canadianbookclubs.com/>
a site for Canadian book clubs
- Lit lovers: <http://litlovers.com/>
a site dedicated to books and book clubs
- Oprah's book club: <http://www.oprah.com/index>
Oprah's book club links off her main page
- Reading group guides: <http://www.readinggroupguides.com/content/index.asp> an online community for reading groups
- Reading group choices: <http://www.readinggroupchoices.com/>
another online site for reading groups

Websites for general book exploration

- Webrary | Morton Grove Public Library - <http://www.webrary.org/rs/rslinks.html> features some great links to book sites
- Whichbook.net: <http://www.whichbook.net/default.aspx>
a different way of choosing a book to read!
- Overbooked: a resource for readers: <http://www.overbooked.org/> an excellent way to find a book
- Library thing: <http://www.librarything.com/>
some amazing book tools - try out the zeitgeist.
- Good reads: <http://www.goodreads.com/> requires registration (free) but has some great ideas